Member's Representations

Sri C. J. MUCKANNAPPA.—Sir, before we enter upon the next item of business of the day, I would like to know what has happened to the notice that we had given under Rule 309 (2) regarding the suspension of the Hon'ble Member Sri S. Gopala Gowda.

Mr. SPEAKER.—If the Hon'ble member wanted to raise any matter other than that which is included in the agenda for the day, he should have come to me and told me about it. Anyway, I may tell him that the reply is already issued.

BUDGET ESTIMATES FOR 1962-63—GENERAL DISCUSSION

Sri S. M. KRISHNA (Maddur).—Sir, a deficit budget has been placed before this House a few months back and we are asked to debate on it. I am constrained to say that this is one of the shabbiest of budgets that has been ever presented to this House. I say it is shabby because when one glances at the budget speech of the Finance Minister it looks as if it is a pool of figures supplied by the various departments. Any Budget will have to contain an economic survey of the State of Mysore, but unfortunately the budget speech as it was read before this House does not contain an economic survey of the State of Mysore. The Budget is just like a departmental report. It has got so many figures which can confuse a legislator. When the Finance Minister at the Centre presents the budget, he catalogues the physical targets achieved and he also mentions the financial targets. But unfortunately the Budget as presented to this House does not contain the physical targets that have been achieved. We are in a very critical stage. The Five-Year Plans have been and are being executed since the past 11 years and today many of us are not aware as to what progress the Government has made in the various fields of development. The
